Andria McClellan

Aidan (after bball game @ Chesapeake Bay Academy): "Mom, those kids are awful. They hit us, they punched us, they choked us, they called me M*** F***er 8 times. I never want to play them again!" Good gracious...I gave the PC line, "Those kids have special needs and they can't help themselves." I wanted to say, "Those little shits need better meds. And, you'll get a better job later in life."

Sherene Silverberg there is no excuse for that behavior. I've had friends with children who had so called ADHD. I saw lots of ineffective parenting and no boundaries. Felt so sorry for those kids who weren't learning to manage their behavior. Poor Aidan that he had to deal with that behavior.

Andria McClellan Nope. Sadly lost (30–25)...although, I think the average age of the boys that our *6th Grade Team* played was 15. They were HUGE. Aidan was choked, Kyle was punched, several kids were tripped.

Andria McClellan And, to boot...Aidan commented on the rude behavior of the PARENTS. "Mom, they were pointing and laughing at us."

Sherene Silverberg there you go, point made. Is there anyway you can have these jokers booted off the league? No child should be subjected to treatment like this.

Andria McClellan good question, Sherene. I am trying not to overreact, although my Momma Bear instinct is definitely coming out....

Alicia Wright Dekker Andria, that sounds like a nightmare. I'm so sorry Aidan had that experience. Choked? That's ridiculous. The game should have been over, right there and then.

Linda Harrington Crosby An, I had no idea that had gone on when you came home with Aidan. I am "Ganny" bear and that should not have gone on! Please look into this. The Williams School boys that Aidan is associated with are awesome, nice AND extremely polite young men and don't deserve that treatment.

Heejin Weisbrod wow Andria, that is ridiculous. I'm sure other parents feel the same way – if they aren't booted off the league, at least they can be put on probation? Them AND their parents?? =(

Heejin Weisbrod Did you belittle them, though? I'm confused.

Linda Harrington Crosby An, you are a mom first and foremost, you defended your son.....and also my dear grandson.....you have nothing to defend. If those actions hadn't occurred.....there would be no discussion.

Christopher Will Wow. Feeling for you guys. I don't think we've ever had to endure that kind of behavior at any sporting event from any opponent, especially basketball. Hang in there, and don't stop playing!
